FOLLOWING:

JUDGMENT

(Dated this the 7th day of April 2025)

NITIN JAMDAR, C.J.

Heard Mr.Aneesh K.R, learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner and Mr.Nagaraj Narayanan, learned Special Government Pleader.

2. The Petitioner who has styled himself as a social worker and a member of a political party, seeks a direction against the State Government to proceed against the Respondent – a Government servant. It is for the State, to decide whether its officer has committed misconduct and whether he is liable to be removed from service or subjected to other disciplinary measures. Apart from the maintainability of the petition, filed in public interest in the realm of service law, it can be seen from the affidavit filed by the Petitioner that the Petitioner had filed Petition against the very same officer in respect of the election of a Committee, of which the Petitioner is a member.

3. In the above circumstances, we decline to entertain this petition. The Writ Petition is disposed of.
