JUDGMENT

All these matters are relating to the confiscation of vehicles under the provisions of the Kerala Minor Mineral Concession Rules. When the matter was considered for the admission, an interim order was granted in respect of releasing of vehicles on payment of certain amount, which shall be adjusted in the further adjudication. Thereafter, the matters were taken up by the appropriate authorities and the vehicles were released. In such circumstances, nothing survives in all these writ petitions and can be dismissed as infructuous.

Accordingly, these writ petitions are dismissed as infructuous.
