JUDGMENT

The above Writ Petition is filed with the following prayers:

- a) To call for the records leading to Ext.P7 order and quash the same or in the alternative to direct the first respondent to hear the proceedings afresh by giving an opportunity to the petitioner and pass fresh orders as per law;
- b) To stay all proceedings pursuant to Ext.P7 order;
- c) Such other reliefs as this Hon'ble Court deems fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case.

[SIC]

2. When this Writ Petition came up for consideration, this Court passed an order on 23.12.2015, which is extracted hereunder:

‘Government Pleader takes notice.

There shall be an order of statusquo for three weeks.

Government Pleader is directed to get instructions whether data bank has been finally notified and find out the status of the petitioner's land in the data bank.'

3. The above order is extended until further orders on 03.06.2016. Today, when the matter taken up for consideration, the Government Pleader submitted that the petitioner has got remedy against Ext.P7 before the additional 4th respondent by way of filing revision. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that a connected Writ Petition is pending before this Court as W.P(C).No.35101/2023. Since Ext.P7 can be challenged before the additional 4th respondent, I am of the considered opinion that, this Writ Petition need not be retained here.

Therefore, this Writ Petition is disposed of with the following directions:

a) The petitioner is free to challenge Ext.P7 before the additional 4th respondent by filing appropriate proceedings within one month from today. If such a revision is filed, the additional 4th respondent shall consider the same and pass appropriate orders in accordance to law, after giving an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner.

b) The interim order dated 23.12.2015 will continue till final orders are passed, if the revision is filed as directed above.
