Present Mr. H.S. Paonam, learned senior counsel assisted by Mr. Bipin and Mr. H. Suraj, learned counsel for the applicants and Mr. S. Niranjana, learned Government Advocate for the State

The present applications are filed for passing of similar order passed by this Court on 06.11.2023 in MC (WP(C)) No.345 of 2023 Ref: WP(C)No.793 of 2022.

This Court earlier passed separate interim orders in the respective main writ petitions for maintaining status quo and also respondents are directed not to act upon the impugned orders/memorandums during the pendency of the main writ petitions. It is submitted that this Court may clarify that the existence of the interim orders and pendency of the writ petitions will not bar the State Government from revoking the suspension orders of the petitioners.

Mr. S. Niranjana, learned Government Advocate submits that this Court may pass appropriate orders in the present Misc. applications.

Recording the statements made at the Bar, it is clarified that there is no bar on the State respondents in passing any order with respect to the revocation of suspension orders of the applicants/petitioners.

With this observation, misc. applications are disposed of.
