CORAM:

JUSTICE SASHIKANTA MISHRA

ORDER

25.03.2026

Order No.
33.

1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.
2. This Court finds that on the previous three occasions it has been stated before this Court that the matter has been compromised between the parties. When the matter is taken up today, learned counsel for the appellants requests for further time. This is a matter of the year 1990. 36 years have passed. Neither the appellants nor the respondents are showing any interest in pursuing the appeal. If at all dispute has been compromised, nothing prevented them from appearing before this Court to say so. This Court has granted sufficient opportunities. As such, this Court does not find any reason to keep the appeal pending, which is therefore, dismissed.
