JUSTICE MRUGANKA SEKHAR SAHOO

ORDER

21.08.2025

(Hybrid Mode)

Order No.

13.

1. Learned counsel for the appellant as well as respondent are heard at length. Learned counsel for the appellant refers to the conduct of the respondent that he has married for the second time after the appeal was filed within time challenging the judgment and decree of divorce dated 02.02.2017. Such marriage would attract the consequence as contained in Section 15 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.
2. Learned counsel for the respondent refers to the order dated 24.04.2025 to submit that the parties can agree for an amount of permanent alimony to be granted to the appellant-wife.
3. By the next date, it is hoped that the learned counsel for the parties shall work out amicable settlement between the parties regarding the quantum of permanent alimony to be paid by the respondent.

4. List on 24th September, 2025.
