ORDER
08.05.2026

Order No.

16.

1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).

2. A compliance affidavit has been filed by the Opposite Party-Contemnor stating therein that the order passed by this Court has already been complied with. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the Contemnor referred to the office order dated 03.10.2025 at Annexure-A/1 to the compliance affidavit dated 23.10.2025.

3. On perusal of the office order dated 03.10.2025, it appears that the Petitioner whose case was to be considered under the OCS(RA) Rules, 2020 participated in the selection process and it was found that he has secured 18 points which is less than 44 points that is the minimum eligible points to be considered for appointment on compassionate ground under the OCS(RA) Rules,

2020. Accordingly, the Opposite Parties have rejected the application of the Petitioner as the Petitioner was found ineligible for such consideration.

4. Taking into consideration the aforesaid development, this Court disposes of the present contempt application granting liberty to the Petitioner to approach this Court afresh by filing a fresh writ application, in the event the Petitioner is so advised, if the Petitioner feels aggrieved by order dated 03.10.2025.

5. Accordingly, the contempt application stands dropped.
