This batch of review petitions is filed after brooking delay in varying periods. Applications are supported by affidavit. Delay is not that long and that there are some arguable points in the matter. No prejudice would be caused to other side, if delay is condoned.

In the above circumstances, applications having been favoured, the delay brooked in filing the review petitions is condoned.

I.As. are thus disposed off.

Issue emergent notice. Learned AGA, on request, accepts notice for OP No.2, while learned Counsel-Mr. Das accepts for OP No.1. Required number of copies of the review petitions with all documents be served on them within three working days.

Call these matters on 20.03.2026.
