.... Opp. Parties

CORAM:

JUSTICE SIBO SANKAR MISHRA

Order
No.

ORDER
26.03.2025

01.

1. The petitioner is aggrieved by the order dated 03.04.2024 passed by the learned J.M.F.C., Hatadihi in C.M.C. No.14 of 2022, whereby the interim maintenance has been awarded. However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is eagerly trying to settle the dispute with his wife and son. He also expresses dissatisfaction as the respondent has compromised the welfare of the child, who is not able to get proper education in the rural School. In nutshell, he submits that institutional efforts may be made for reconciliation between him and the opposite party No.2.

2. Regard being had to the submissions made by the learned counsels for the parties at the Bar, although I am not inclined to interfere in the impugned order, however, it would be expedient that the trial Court is directed to do well to see that the matter is referred to the District Mediation Centre, Keonjhar for exploring the possibility of settlement between the parties. After receiving the mediation report from the District Mediation Centre, Keonjhar, the trial court shall proceed with the matter in accordance with law.

3. With the aforementioned observation, the CRLMC is disposed of.
