ORDER

Order No.

IA No.3857 of 2026

22. 1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.

3. Mr. Mishra, learned Senior Advocate appearing for the Intervenor-Applicants submits that case of Intervenor-Applicants being similar to that of the Petitioner, they may be allowed to be impleaded as parties to the writ petition for its effective adjudication.

4. We are not inclined to entertain the intervention application as the intervenor-Applicants seek to raise their individual grievance in the writ petition. Since they have a separate cause of action to raise their grievance, may be similar to that of the Petitioner, they may seek remedy in accordance with law, if so advised, but not by filing an application for intervention.

6. At this stage, Mr. Mishra, learned Senior Advocate appearing for the Intervenor-Applicants prays for withdrawal of the application for intervention to file separate writ petition(s).

5. In view of the above, without expressing any opinion on the merit of such submission made by Mr. Mishra, learned Senior Advocate, this Court disposes of the intervention application as withdrawn.
