ORDER

05.05.2026

Order No.

02.

1. Heard learned counsel for the respective parties.
2. Instant petition has been filed under Section 482 BNSS by the petitioners seeking pre-arrest bail in connection with Puruna Bazar P.S. Case No.25 of 2026 corresponding to G.R. Case No.34 of 2026 pending in the court of learned S.D.J.M., Bhadrak on the grounds stated.
3. Recorded the submissions of learned counsel for the respective parties. A copy of the order in B.A. No. 215 of 2026 dated 20th March, 2026 of the learned Special Court is produced by Mr. Zafarulla, learned counsel for the petitioner to claim that the victim received simple injuries as mentioned therein, hence, considering the same, the accused persons should be allowed to go on bail. Recorded the submission of learned counsel for the informant alleging that the victim has been threatened by the petitioners recently and hence, a complaint has been lodged in the Public Grievance Portal. A copy of the said complaint by the informant is produced. State has submitted the case diary and other relevant documents including the medical examination report of the injured. On perusal of the said report, the Court finds that the informant received a trauma force and swelling on the face and such injuries are stated to be not grievous so found by the learned Special Court in B.A. No. 215 of 2026. It is further revealed that two other accused persons have been granted bail in the meantime. Considering the above facts and submissions of learned counsel for the respective parties, this Court is inclined to direct release of the petitioners subject to absence of any antecedents against them even though not in favour entertaining their bail plea.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered.

5. In the result, the ABLAPL petition stands disposed of with a direction to the petitioners to surrender before learned S.D.J.M., Bhadrak within a fortnight from today and in the event, they surrender in compliance thereof, shall be released on bail in connection with G.R. Case No.34 of 2026 on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.40,000/- (rupees forty thousand) each with one solvent surety for the like amount each with such other suitable conditions imposed as deemed just and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case. It is further directed that such release shall be subject to absence of any antecedent against the petitioners. It is also directed that the petitioners shall stay away from the informant and not to cause any harm to him in any manner whatsoever and in case, any of the conditions imposed upon such release is/or violated, it is to entail cancellation bail granted to them without reference to this Court.

6. Issue urgent certified copy of this order as per rules.
