4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the issue involved in the present writ petition was directly and substantially an issue in W.P.(C) No.40093 of 2021 and batch of other similar matters, which were disposed of by this Court vide judgment dated 19.05.2023. Learned counsel for the Petitioner, further submitted that after disposal of W.P.(C) No.40093 of 2021 along with a batch of other similar matters vide common judgment dated 19.05.2023, the Opposite Party-University has approached the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court by filing a writ appeal. The writ appeal was dismissed on the ground of limitation. Thereafter, the Opposite Party-University has approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court by filing the SLP(C) No.10357 of 2024. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, vide order dated 22.09.2025, while setting aside the order passed by the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court, has remanded the matter back to the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court. As of now, the writ appeal is pending for re-adjudication. He further submitted that no interim order has been passed in such writ appeal.

Being

aggrieved by such action, the Petitioner has once again approached this Court by filing the present writ petition.

6. On a careful consideration of the factual background of the present case and further taking note of the common judgment of this Court dated 19.05.2023 passed in W.P.(C) No.40093 of 2021 and batch of other similar matters, this Court found that the factual background of the present case is identical to the one already disposed of by the common judgment dated 19.05.2023.

7. In such view of the matter, this Court is of the view that nothing survives for fresh adjudication. In such view of the matter, the present writ petition is being disposed of in terms of the judgment dated 19.05.2023 passed in W.P.(C) No.40093 of 2021 and batch of other writ petitions.
