CRLMC No.2114 of 2026

5. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner. Perused the CRLMC application as well as the prayer made therein.

6. By filing the present CRLMC application, the Petitioner has sought for a direction to the learned J.M.F.C., Jatni to consider the grounds raised by the Petitioner before the learned trial Court at the time of framing of charge in 1CC Case No.09 of 2014, which was registered for alleged commission of offence punishable under Sections 420/468/471/506/34 of IPC and, wherein cognizance has been taken vide order dated 13.02.2019 by the learned J.M.F.C.(O), Bhubaneswar. He further submitted that the case is posted for framing of charge.

7. Learned counsel for the Petitioner, at this juncture, contended that the Petitioner does not want press this application with liberty to raise the grounds taken in the present application, along with other grounds available to the Petitioner, at the time of framing of charge by filing a discharge application.

8. Considering such submission, the present CRLMC application stands disposed of by granting liberty to the Petitioner to raise the grounds taken in the present CRLMC application, along with any other grounds available to the Petitioner, by filing a discharge application. In the event any such discharge application is filed, learned trial Court shall do well to consider and dispose of such application in accordance with law by passing a reasoned order.

9. With the aforesaid observation and direction, the CRLMC application stands disposed of.
