ORDER

25.03.2026

(Hybrid mode)

Order No.

- 11.
- 1. Heard Mr. Lalitendu Mishra, learned counsel appearing for the appellant-husband and Mr. J. Swain, learned counsel appearing for the respondent-wife.
 - 2. The permanent alimony dispute between the parties have been settled at Rs.13,00,000/- (rupees thirteen lakhs).
 - 3. It is submitted by Mr. J. Swain, learned counsel for the respondent-wife that certain gold ornaments and house hold articles are yet to be returned to the respondent-wife by the appellant-husband. In this regard, learned counsel for the respondent-wife submitted that he will file an affidavit before the Registry during course of the day after serving a copy thereof on the learned counsel for the appellant-husband.

4. List this matter on 11th May, 2026. The matter will be taken up in the second half. On the said date, both the appellant-husband and the respondent-wife shall remain present before this Court in person.

5. As this order has been passed in presence of the learned counsels for both the parties, no formal notice need be issued to either the appellant-husband or the respondent-wife for their personal appearance on 11.05.2026.
