

CRLA No.71 of 2016

Misc. Case No.313 of 2016

24.02.2016 is the contention of learned counsel for the appellant that after conviction, taking into account the period of sentence imposed on of the appellant, the learned Trial Court has enlarged the petitioner on interim bail for a period of one month which has to expire on 27.1.2016.

In this case, LCR has not been received and it was directed vide order dated 15.2.2016 that the Misc. Cases for bail and stay realization of fine amount shall be considered after receipt of the LCR. In the peculiar facts situation, taking into account the period of sentence imposed, I direct if an application is filed before the learned Trial Court to extend the period of bail in view of the pendency of the miscellaneous applications, the same shall be dealt with favorably in accordance with law.

List this matter next week for consideration of the Misc. Cases for bail and stay realization of fine amount.

Registry is directed to intimate the learned Trial Court to send the LCR so as to reach this Court by next week.

S.K.Sahoo, J.