MACA No. 506 of 2024

M/s. Shriram G.I. Co. Ltd., ... Appellant
BBSR

Mr. A.A. Khan, Advocate

-versus-

Tapas Maity & Others ... Respondents

Mr. B. Singh, Advocate (R-1 & 2)

CORAM:
JUSTICE G. SATAPATHY

ORDER(ORAL)
13.02.2026

Order No.
04.

1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual/Physical Mode).

2. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, this Court formally summarizes the points of determination between the parties which read as under:-

"(i) whether the deceased was a gratuitous passenger or helper;

(ii) whether the driver of the offending vehicle was holding a valid and effective license as on the date of accident;

(iii) whether the award is excessive or exorbitant."

3. Mr. Adam Ali Khan, learned counsel for the appellant, however, seeks for one week time to satisfy this Court on these three issues. Accordingly, list this matter on 20th February, 2026.
