CORAM: JUSTICE V. NARASINGH

ORDER
09.01.2026

Order No.

- 02. 1. Since both the matters arise out of same FIR, they are heard together and disposed of by this common order.
2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

None appears for the Informant when the matter is called.

3. The Petitioners are seeking pre-arrest bail in connection with G.R Case No.285 of 2024 pending in the Court of learned S.D.J.M, Dhenkanal, arising out of Bhuban P.S. Case No.289 of 2024 for commission of offence punishable under Sections 294/306/506/34 IPC.

4. The allegation of the prosecution is that the Petitioner in ABLAPL No.6888 of 2024 had a relationship with the deceased and since there was a dissension in such relationship, she committed suicide.

5. It is submitted by the learned counsel that even if the entire allegation of the prosecution is accepted at its face value, the Petitioner in ABLAPL No.6888 of 2024 and Petitioner in ABLAPL No.6933 of 2024 who is the mother ought not to be subjected to custodial interrogation.

6. Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer for pre-arrest bail.

7. Considering the nature of allegations as borne out from the case diary and since the investigation has progressed substantially and there is no allegation of interfering with the ongoing investigation and the role ascribed to the Petitioners, this Court is persuaded to hold that the Petitioners are entitled to be released on pre-arrest bail. Accordingly, it is directed that on surrendering within three weeks hence and moving for bail, the Petitioners shall be released on bail by the learned Court in seisin on such terms as deemed just and proper.

8. Additionally, it is directed that the Petitioner in ABLAPL No.6888 of 2024 shall not in any way try to intimidate the family of the deceased and shall appear before the jurisdictional police station once every month till submission of final form.

9. Accordingly, both the ABLAPLs stand disposed of.
