ORDER

18.8.2025.

Order No.

3

1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.
2. As directed by order dated 11.8.2025, the learned District Judge has forwarded copy of the explanation submitted by the concerned judicial officer. It is stated in the explanation that the initial explanation submitted by her was out of fear and without any intention to hurt the sentiment of this Court. The officer has sincerely apologized for the explanation submitted earlier. As regards the misdescription of the order of stay passed by this Court, it is stated that due to heavy work load, the order passed by this Court in R.S.A. No.379/2018 was misstated in her order passed on 30.8.2022 in Execution Case

No.34/2018. The officer has regretted such fact and has taken full responsibility for the mistake with assurance not to commit such mistake in future. The officer has further apologized for the same.

3. Having regard to the explanation submitted and the apology tendered, the same is accepted. The matter is set at rest. The officer is asked to be more careful in future while discharging judicial duties.

4. The contempt proceeding is dropped. Let a copy of this order be forwarded to the concerned judicial officer for her guidance.
