

I.A. No.104 of 2020

06 05.04.2021

This matter is taken up through Video Conferencing mode.

This application has been filed by the appellants/petitioners for dispensing with filing of certified copy of the impugned judgment dated 03.07.2020 passed in W.P. (C) No.18298 of 2014.

Heard Mr. M.K.Khuntia, learned counsel for the appellant and Mr. J.K.Rath, learned Senior Counsel for the respondents.

Considering the submissions made and grounds taken in the I.A., the filing of certified copy of the aforesaid judgment is dispensed with for the time being. But whenever, the Court requires, the same shall be produced by the learned counsel for the appellant-State.

The I.A. is accordingly disposed of.

I.A. No.1321 of 2020

07 05.04.2021

Heard.

Perused the office note.

Office has noted that there is a delay of 24 days in preferring the appeal. We are not able to agree with the report of the Stamp Reporter as the impugned order has been passed during the lock down period of COVID-19. So, there is no delay in filing the appeal.

Accordingly, the I.A. is disposed of as infructuous.

I.A. No.686 of 2021

08 05.04.2021

This is a formal application for correction of the typographical errors in the cause title of the writ appeal.

Since there is no opposition by learned counsel for the other side, the prayer is allowed.

As per the noting with regard to Alaka Mishra, Rasmita Hara and Hemanta Kumar Naik that they are not parties to the writ appeal, we are informed that as they had been subsequently impleaded as parties in the writ petition, their names have been inadvertently omitted, and, therefore, we are of the opinion that corrections to be carried out by the appellant in the cause title shall take care of the same. So we are not passing any order in that respect.

Bichi

Let the consolidated cause title of the writ appeal be filed within three days.

List the writ appeal on 12.04.2021 for fresh admission.
