Order No.

- 02.
1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid mode.
  2. Heard learned counsels for the Petitioners in CRLMC Nos.1663 & 2707 of 2025.
  3. It appears that the first case has been filed at the instance of the accused-Petitioner whereas the second case has been filed at the instance of the Informant.
  4. Learned counsel for the Informant-Petitioner in the second case stated before this Court that since he has received the money, he does not want to proceed further in this case. Accordingly, he prayed for quashing of the FIR.

5. Since this case arises out of an OPID proceeding, copies of the applications be served on any of the counsel for OPID by the next date.

6. List this matter in the next week indicating the name of Mr. Bibekananda Nayak, learned counsel for OPID in the cause list as well as in the brief.
