ORDER

21.08.2026

Order No.

11. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).
2. Alleging non-compliance of order dated 21.09.2021 passed in W.P.(C) No.29103 of 2021, the Petitioner has approached this Court by filing the present contempt application.
3. Learned counsel for the Petitioner at the outset contended that the State-Opposite Parties being aggrieved by order dated 21.09.2021 initially filed writ appeal bearing W.A. No.2473 of 2024. The Hon'ble Appellate Division Bench in the meantime has already dismissed the writ appeal vide order dated 12.05.2026. Further directing the Opposite Parties-Contemnors to implement the order within a period of three months. It is stated by learned counsel for the Petitioner though in the meantime, the aforesaid three months' time has expired the order passed by this Court has not been implemented. Learned counsel for the Contemnor- Opposite Party stated before this Court on the basis of the instruction vide letter dated 21.08.2026 that a review petition bearing RVWPET No.39310 of 2026 has already been filed as against the order dated 12.05.2026 in W.A. No.2473 of 2024.

4. In such view of the matter, learned counsel for the Opposite Party-Contemnor submitted that the Contemnors be granted some more time to pursue the remedy in the review petition as well as to take steps for implementation of the order, subject to the order to be passed in the review petition. While considering the grievance of the Petitioner in the present case, this Court is of the considered view that filing of the review petition shall not stand in the way of the Opposite Party-Contemnor to implement the order passed by this Court in the absence of any specific order restraining the Contemnor-Opposite Party from taking a decision in the matter or directing this Court to stay further proceeding to the contempt application. However, considering the submission made by the learned counsel for the Opposite Party-Contemnor, he is granted four weeks' time as last chance to ensure that the order passed by this Court is implemented subject to the outcome of the review, failing which the Opposite Party-Contemnor shall be asked to appear before this Court and to explain as to why they shall not be proceeded against under the Contempt of Courts Act.

5. List this matter on 01.10.2026.
