Order No.

4. I.A. No. 194 of 2025

1. I.A. arises out of I.A. No. No. 193 of 2025 arising out of MATA No. 325 of 2024. I.A. has been filed by the petitioner-respondent for condonation of delay in filing the I.A. No. 193 of 2025 for recall of order dated 16.12.2024 passed in MATA No. 325 of 2024. As endorsed by Hon'ble the Chief Justice the matter has been listed before this Bench as one of us, M.S.Sahoo, J. was Member of the Bench that passed order dated 16.12.2024 in MATA No. 325 of 2024 and I.A. No. 356 of 2024.

2. Mr. Dash, learned counsel for the opposite party opposes the prayer for condonation of delay.

3. We have gone through the petition. Considering the grounds stated in the petition for condonation of delay in filing the I.A., we are satisfied that sufficient causes have been shown to accept the same.

4. Delay in filing the I.A. No. 193 of 2025 is condoned.

The I.A. is disposed of.

I. A. No. 193 of 2025

5. I.A. has been filed for recall of the order dated 16.12.2024 passed in MATA No. 325 of 2024 and I.A. No. 356 of 2024.

6. It is submitted that the address of the respondent given in the appeal is not the address where he resides and he was not served with notice as issued in MATA No. 325 of 2024 and I.A. No. 356 of 2024. On being asked regarding the observations and findings in the order at paragraph-2 that notice was issued in the address given in the postal article with the respondent's address that is same as that given in the ex-parte order dated 23rd February, 2016 passed by the learned Judge, Family Court, Balasore in C.P. No. 31 of 2014; learned counsel for the petitioner-respondent fairly submits that the respondent was the petitioner before learned court in the C.P. No.31 of 2014 and the address given by him in the C.P. and the address of him mentioned in the present MATA No. 325 of 2024 does match.

In any event it has also to be noticed that the respondent has entered appearance through his counsel in the pending MATA before this Court.

We do not find any merit in the I.A.. The same stands dismissed.

Accordingly, the MATA No. 325 of 2024 shall be placed before the assigned Bench for consideration along with the connected MATA No.256 of 2024.
