ORDER

18.03.2026

Order No.

07.

Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

1. The case at hand is an instance indicating that the trust placed in the submissions made at the bar being misused. By order dated 04.09.2025 in I.A. No.852 of 2025, this Court passed the following order:

"2. Considering the submission of Mr. Sarangi, learned counsel for the petitioner and in view of the plea advanced that blank cheque was issued and it has been presented for encashment by the opposite party, this Court, as an interim measure and since the petitioner is on interim bail by the order of the learned court below, directs that there shall be no coercive action taken against him, consequent upon, the impugned judgment at Annexure-1 till the next date of hearing.”

2. On verification of the record, it is seen that the basis on which this Court passed the interim order that the Petitioner is on interim bail is mis-statement of fact.

3. Learned counsel Mr. Sarangi appearing on behalf of the Petitioner, submits that he made such submission as per the instruction received from the conducting counsel, Mr. B.K. Thatoi.

4. Be that as it may on verification of record, it is found that the Petitioner was not on interim bail on 04.09.2025, when the order was passed by this Court in I.A. No.852 of 2025.

5. Learned counsel Mr. Sarangi seeks an adjournment.

6. List this matter on 22.04.2026.

7. It is made clear that the interim order has not been extended.
