While dealing with the writ petitions in our assignment/determination, invariably we come across many writ petitions are being filed challenging the judgment of learned Central Administrative Tribunal without enclosing/annexing the pleadings before the learned Tribunal. We have earlier in several cases given specific directions, even then the petitioners are not filing the entire pleadings before the learned Central Administrative Tribunal by challenging the final orders. Judicial time is being wasted for this reason. Therefore, we thought it appropriate to direct the Registry to ensure that in every writ petition arising out of the judgment of the learned Central Administrative Tribunal, the entire pleadings before the learned Tribunal should be annexed.

We felt it appropriate and expedient to direct the Registry to place this matter before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice for issuance of necessary standing order(s) to that effect, so that whenever the final orders of the learned Central Administrative Tribunal is under challenge before this Court, the Court would have the advantage of the pleadings before the learned Tribunal.

List this matter on 01.12.2025.
