ORDER(ORAL)
20.03.2026

04.

1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual/Physical Mode).
2. It is found from the record that in MACA No. 1118 of 2024, R1 to R3 have already appeared through Mr. Jagabandhu Sahu, learned counsel, but as per suggestion, the copy of the appeal memo has not yet been served to Ms. Rimjhimbala Pati, learned counsel who normally appears for IFFCO Tokio General Insurance Company, however, when the matter was taken up, Mr. Anish Ankur Mishra, learned proxy counsel appearing on behalf of Mr. Pramod Kumar Tripathy, learned counsel for the appellants undertakes to supply the copy of appeal memo to Ms. Rimjhimbala Pati, learned counsel within three days. Accordingly, the appellant is permitted to take fresh steps for issuance of notice only against R4 and R6.

3. It is also found from the record that in MACA No. 1103 of 2024, notice issued against R5 & R7 are yet to be held sufficient and thereby, appellant is permitted to take fresh steps for issuance of notice only against R5 & R7.

4. It is also found from the record that in MACA No. 1117 of 2024, notice issued against R4 & R6 are yet to be held sufficient and thereby, appellant is permitted to take fresh steps for issuance of notice only against R4 & R6.

5. It is also found from the record that in MACA No. 1119 of 2024, notice issued against R3 and R5 are yet to be held sufficient and thereby, appellant is permitted to take fresh steps for issuance of notice only against R3 and R5.

6. It is also found from the record that in MACA No. 1121 of 2024, notice issued against R3 and R5 are yet to be held sufficient and thereby, appellant is permitted to take fresh steps for issuance of notice only against R3 and R5.

7. Accordingly, list all these matters on 08.05.2026.
