ORDER

12.12.2025

Order No.

- 02.
1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).
 2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner as well as learned counsel for the Opposite Parties-Contemnors.
 3. The Petitioner has approached this Court by filing the present contempt application of the Petitioner seeking implementation of order dated 14.07.2023.
 4. Learned counsel for the Petitioner and at the outset contended that although vide order dated 14.07.2023, this Court directed the Opposite Parties to consider the representation of the Petitioner with regard to grant of his pensionary benefit, however, the same has not been considered. As a result of which, it has been alleged that the Opposite Parties have deliberately violated of this Court's order.

5. Learned counsel for the Opposite Parties-Contemnors on the basis of the letter dated 04.11.2025 of the Commerce and Transport (Transport) Department, Government of Odisha stated before this Court that in the meantime, the representation of the Petitioner has been considered and disposed of favourably and, that the Petitioner has been sanctioned with his pensionary benefits.

6. In reply to the above, learned counsel for the Petitioner contended that the pensionary benefit as due and admissible to him has not been taken into consideration by the Opposite Parties while sanctioning and disbursing the amount of pension pursuant to the order passed by this Court. On a careful consideration of the order passed by this Court on 14.07.2023 and keeping in view the compliance order dated 04.11.2025, this Court is of the view that no case of contempt is made out. However, it is open to the Petitioner to challenge the conduct of the Opposite Parties in the event they have not released the sanction by re-fixing the pay of the Petitioner as is due and admissible to the Petitioner, by filing a fresh writ application.

7. With the aforesaid observation and direction, the CRLMC application stands disposed of.
