CORAM:

ORDER

02.12.2025

Order No.03

1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.
2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Parties.
3. On the question of maintainability of the writ petition, learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner relies on a decision of this Court reported in 2000 (I) OLR 126 and another decision of this Court reported in 2023 (I) OLR 349.
4. Placing reliance on the aforesaid two decisions, learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner contended that the impugned order under Annexure-3 having been communicated to the Petitioner in his home address within the State of Odisha, the writ petition is very much maintainable before this Court.
5. However, in course of hearing since it is found that there is no proof regarding the mode of service of Annexure-4, this Court directs learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner to file an affidavit showing the mode of submission of Annexure-4.

6. As requested, list this matter in the week commencing 15th December, 2025.
