Heard.

This is an application for bail under section 483 BNSS in connection with Bheden P.S. Case No.80 of 2025 corresponding to C.T. Case No.81 of 2025 pending in the file of learned J.M.F.C., Bheden for alleged commission of offences under sections 331(4), 310(2), 62 and 111(4) of B.N.S.

The prayer for bail of the petitioner was rejected by the learned Addl. Sessions Judge, Bargarh vide order dated 23.08.2025.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has produced the certified copy of the F.I.R., charge sheet and the statements of the witnesses and other documents, which are taken on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 30.07.2025 and in the meantime, on completion of investigation, charge sheet has been submitted under section 331(4), 310(2) and 111(4) of B.N.S. and the stolen articles have also been recovered and so far as the petitioner is concerned, it is the prosecution case that cash of Rs.8,000/-(rupees eight thousand) and one gold necklace was seized from the possession of the petitioner. He further submits that the petitioner is having no criminal antecedents and he is a local man and there is no chance of absconding and therefore, the bail application of the petitioner may be favourably considered.

Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer for bail and contended that the petitioner has been identified in the test identification parade, however, he has not disputed the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is having no criminal antecedents.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the respective parties, the nature of accusation against the petitioner, taking into account the period of detention of the petitioner in judicial custody and since the petitioner has got no criminal antecedents and the investigation has already been completed, I am inclined to release the petitioner on bail.

Let the petitioner be released on bail in the aforesaid case on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.50,000/- (rupees fifty thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned Court in seisin over the matter with further conditions as the learned Court below may deem just and proper including the condition that the petitioner shall not indulge in any criminal activities and shall appear before the learned trial Court on each date to which the case would be posted for trial and shall not try to influence the witnesses in any manner.

Violation of any of the conditions shall entail cancellation of bail.

Accordingly, the BLAPL stands disposed of.
