Sambit Nayak

Petitioner

Mr. P. Varma, Advocate

-versus-

Parimita Mohanty

....

Opposite Party

CORAM: JUSTICE SANJAY KUMAR MISHRA

ORDER

08.12.2025

Order No.

01.

This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.

2. The writ petition has been preferred by the Petitioner, who is the Petitioner in C.P. No.76 of 2017, pending before the learned Judge, Family Court-II, Bhubaneswar for decree of divorce.

3. An innocuous prayer has been made in the writ petition to direct the learned Court below to dispose of the proceeding in C.P. No.76 of 2017, as expeditiously as possible, within a stipulated period of two months from the date of passing appropriate order by this Court.

4. In view of such innocuous prayer and since the C.P. is of the year 2017, to avoid further delay; the writ petition is taken up for hearing and disposal at the stage of admission without noticing the Opposite Party-wife.

5. Heard learned Counsel for the Petitioner.

6. It is revealed from the order sheet in C.P. No.76 of 2017, as at Annexure-3, that the said C.P. was last posted to 24.10.2025, on which date, the matter stood adjourned to 14.11.2025 for serving interrogatories by the Respondent on Petitioner, who is the present Petitioner, for cross-examination of R.W.1 on recall.

7. During hearing, a query being made by this Court, learned Counsel for the Petitioner submits, in the meantime, the evidence of R.W.1 on recall has concluded and now the matter stands posted to 15.12.2025 for further examination and cross-examination of R.W.2, who has already filed his affidavit evidence.

8. Recording such submission made by the learned Counsel for the Petitioner and taking note of the averments on record, the writ petition stands disposed of at the stage of admission directing the learned Judge, Family Court-II, Bhubaneswar to proceed further in C.P. No.76 of 2017 in accordance with law and try to conclude it at the earliest. Since the evidence from the side of Respondent in C.P. No.76 of 2017 is at the verge of conclusion, the learned Court below is directed to conclude the proceeding in C.P. No.76 of 2017 by the end of February, 2026.

9. Urgent certified copy of this order be granted on proper application.
