Order No.

8. 1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.
2. Mr. Mukherji, learned Senior Advocate appearing for the Petitioners, in course of argument, submits that in spite of best effort the Petitioners could not get access to the record of OLR Case No.63 of 1973-74. He also submits that the Petitioners had sought for intimation about the said document under the provisions of the Right to Information Act, 2005, but it was not supplied. Said reply of the Public Information Officer is not available in the case record. He, therefore, prays for an adjournment to place of record the said document along with an affidavit. It is also submitted that in the reply affidavit filed to the rejoinder affidavit, no reference has been made to Annexure-9, so also the notice issued to Natabara Behuray in the land acquisition proceeding.
4. Mr. Mishra, learned ASC also prays for an adjournment to file an affidavit of a competent Officer with regard to the source of
