CORAM:

JUSTICE SASHIKANTA MISHRA

ORDER

21.01.2026

Order No.
01.

1. This matter is taken up through hybrid mode.
2. Learned State counsel accepts notice on behalf of all the Opposite Parties.
3. It is emphatically argued by Mr. Amulya Kumar Das, husband of the petitioner and authorized to represent her in this case, that the relevant documents were filed in course of the proceeding but the same have not been considered.
4. This Court finds that the revisional Court has held that without an order allowing amendment the petitioner has filed a consolidated petition. Secondly, the petitioner has not filed any affidavit supporting the averments made in the revision petition.
5. In order to ascertain the truth, the State counsel is requested to produce the case record and assist the Court with regard to the assertions of the petitioner.

6. List this matter on 18th February, 2026.
