ORDER
07.03.2025

Order No.

I.A. No.2330 of 2022

- 02. 1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual/Physical) Mode.
2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Parties.
3. This I.A has been filed for grant of bail by keeping the sentence under suspension.
- 3.1. It is contended that since the Appellant has already served half of the sentence, he be released on bail by suspending the sentence on any terms and condition.
4. Learned State Counsel on the other hand while opposing the prayer contended that taking into account the involvement of the Appellant and the statement of the victim-P.W.8, Appellant is not entitled to get the relief as prayed for.
5. Heard learned counsel appearing for the Parties. Perused the materials available on record. This Court after going through the same, more particularly the statement of the victim, is not inclined to release the appellant on bail by suspending the sentence.

6. Accordingly, the I.A stands rejected.
