3. Thereafter, though the matter was directed to be listed on 04.05.2026, it was listed on 06.05.2026 and again the petitioner had adjournment.

Today, the matter being in the list under the heading 'Fresh Admission' at the beginning of the day's proceeding, adjournment is again sought for.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner is appraised of the pattern of seeking adjournment since 28.01.2026 for the last five months, which speaks about conduct of the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the Opp. Party submits that though the execution has been filed in the pretext of pendency of the revision application, the petitioner continues defiance of the order and remain in default of the amount due.

5. In considered view of this Court, this Court has shown sufficient indulgence for the last five months, the petitioner's apparent strategy has been to somehow to adjourn the matter and in the process, the Opp. Party is not paid the amount of maintenance.

Learned executing Court shall proceed with the execution in accordance with law.

Copy of this order shall be forwarded to the learned executing Court by the Registry.

6. The matter shall be listed for fresh admission on 06.07.2026.
