06.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and State.
2. Instant petition has been filed under Section 482 BNSS by the petitioners seeking pre-arrest bail in connection with Chandbali P.S. Case No.506 of 2025 corresponding to G.R. Case No.921 of 2025 pending in the file of learned J.M.F.C., Chandbali on the grounds stated.
3. Gone through the FIR as at Annexure-1. The case diary is submitted to the Court by learned counsel for the State and the same is gone through. The statements of the witnesses recorded during investigation are made available for the Court's perusal. The details of the incident narrated by the informant and other witnesses examined under Section 180 BNSS. It is alleged in the FIR that the petitioners assaulted the informant by means of a 'Bhujali'. But the medical opinion therein reveals that the victim received lacerations stated to be not grievous. Of course, all the injuries have been received on the head of the victims. Mr. Pradhan, learned counsel for the petitioners informs the Court that the counter FIR is lodged leading to registration of Chandbali PS Case No.507 dated 14th December, 2025. Considering the FIRs lodged by the parties against each other for the same incident and for the assault, one of the victims received any grievous injury though lacerations, this Court, recording the plea that the petitioners do not have any antecedent, is inclined to direct their surrender before the learned court below for being released with conditions as even though it is not inclined to entertain their plea of pre-arrest bail and accordingly, it is ordered.

4. In the result, the ABLAPL is disposed of with the direction as aforesaid. It is further directed that in the event, the petitioners surrender before the court of learned J.M.F.C., Chandbali in connection with Chandbali P.S. Case No.506 of 2025 corresponding to G.R. Case No.921 of 2025 within a fortnight from today, they shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bail bond of Rs.20,000/-(rupees twenty thousand) each with one solvent surety for the like amount each with following conditions, such as, they shall not pick up any quarrel with the informant and her family members and cause any harm to them in any manner whatsoever while on bail and also to furnish an undertaking at the PS not to commit any further mischief involving the informant's family. It is directed that the above order shall stand vacated without reference to this Court in case any of the conditions is/are violated after their release.
