SUMEET GOEL, J. ORAL

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 for quashing of FIR No.200 dated 10.06.2021 under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B of IPC, registered at Police Station Faridabad Central, District Faridabad and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 11.02.2026 (Annexure P-2), which is stated to have been effected between the parties.

Das v. State of Haryana and another, decided on 12.11.2024, Notice of motion.

At this stage, Mr. Gurmeet Singh, AAG, Haryana, has put in appearance on behalf of respondent No.1-State of Haryana and accepts notice.

Payment of costs and production of receipt thereof shall be a condition precedent for recording of statements in the manner directed for hereinabove.*

It is explicit that depositing of costs shall not create any kind of equities in favour of the petitioners.”

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 11.03.2026 from Chief Judicial Magistrate, Faridabad has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“i. As per statement of I.O HC Jaibir 145/FBD, there are only two accused namely N.K Mair & Harpal Singh in the present case FIR and both of them are party to the petition before Hon'ble High Court.

ii. As per statement of I.O HC Jaibir no. 145/FBD, only Dinesh Kumar is complainant or affected/aggrieved in the present case FIR, and he is a party to the petition before Hon'ble High Court.

iv. All the affected parties have entered in to compromise and their statements have been recorded.

v. The compromise between the parties appears to be genuine, valid, without there being any kind of influence or coercion.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.

- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS,2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) The parties have compromised.*
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.200 dated 10.06.2021 under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B of IPC, registered at Police Station Faridabad Central, District Faridabad and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 11.02.2026 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
