2. On 24.02.2026, the following order was passed:

“Apprehending his arrest in FIR No.0021 dated 20.01.2026 registered for offences punishable under Section 318(4) of BNS 2023 at Police Station Sahnewal, District Police Commissionerate Ludhiana; the petitioner has preferred this petition under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 seeking pre-arrest bail.

At this stage; Mr. Gaurav Vir Singh Behl, Advocate has caused appearance on behalf of the complainant.

At this stage; learned counsel for the rival private parties are ad idem that there may be chances of amicable settlement between the parties and, thus, a joint request has been made to refer the matter to the Mediation & Conciliation Centre of this Court.

Learned counsel for the complainant has vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner by arguing that allegations raised against the said petitioner are serious in nature and in case the petitioner is extended the concession of anticipatory bail, there is all the likelihood that he may interfere with the investigation as also intimidate the witnesses and also the FIR-complainant.

6. Keeping in view the factual milieu of the case in hand, especially the factum of the petitioner having joined investigation and he is not required for custodial interrogation, the petition is allowed and the order dated 24.02.2026 granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner is hereby made absolute, subject to the conditions as enumerated under Section 482(2) of BNSS.

7. This order should not be treated as “blanket” order. It will not be read granting petitioner indefinite protection from arrest. It shall be confined to the FIR mentioned ibid and will not operate in respect of any other incident that involves commission of an offence.

8. Liberty is reserved in favour of State/complainant to move for cancellation/recall of this order in case the petitioner violates any condition
