3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 01.04.2026 from Principal Magistrate, Juvenile Justice Board, Karnal, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“With reference to the subject noted above, it is submitted that vide Order dated 18.03.2026 passed by the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in CRM-M-14791-2026 in case titled "Pathnidhi Choudhary Vs. State of Haryana and Others" the report of this Court was sought.

As per order dated 18.03.2026, passed by the Hon'ble Ms. Justice Sumeet Goel, Judge, Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh in Criminal Misc. No.M-14791-2026, this Court has been directed to record the statements of the parties and send report with regard to the compromise. It is relevant to mention here that in the present FIR Pathnidhi Choudhary son of Vikrant Singh is child-in-conflict with law and facing inquiry before Juvenile Justice Board, Karnal. In the present case, there is only one complainant named Suresh Kumar son of Shyam Dass and one injured named Ramesh son of Shyam Dass. In compliance of said directions, parties have appeared and their statements regarding compromise recorded separately.

P/SI HC Chand P.S. Civil Lines, Karnal (Investigating Officer)

vide his statement recorded separately stated that there is one juvenile namely Pathnidhi Chaudhary son of Vikrant Singh in the present FIR No.451 dated 20.08.2025 under Sections 281, 125(a), 125(b) of BNS and 3/181 of M.V. Act, P.S. Civil Lines, Karnal and he is party to compromise.

Further stated that neither any additional accused has been added by him nor any offence has been added or deleted by him during investigation. No accused was declared proclaimed offender at any stage of present FIR. There is only one complainant namely Suresh Kumar son of Sh. Shyam Dass and injured namely Ramesh son of Sh. Shyam Dass in the present FIR. There is no criminal proceeding pending against aforesaid juvenile to his knowledge and information, as per record.

It is submitted that after going through the statement made by the complainant, injured and children-in-conflict with law this Court is satisfied that the statements regarding the compromise is made by them out of their own free-will and without any threat or coercion from any side. The compromise also appears to be voluntarily in nature. Statement of complainant, injured and child-in-conflict with law and investigating officer are annexed herewith for kind perusal.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent Nos.2 and 3 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner is quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.451 dated 20.08.2025 under Sections 125(a), 125(b), 281 of BNS added later on Sections 3/181 of Motor Vehicle Act, 1954, registered at Police Station Karnal Civil Lines and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 07.03.2026 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
