Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submits that the petitioner and his deceased wife were in relationship and marriage between them had taken place on 29.08.2024 against the wishes of their families for which a protection petition (Annexure P-2) was filed by them on 02.09.2024 in which the deceased wife had made a statement that she apprehended threat to her life from respondents No.4 to 7 therein i.e. Mahender Kumar Tripathi (father), Prashant Kumar Tripathi (brother), Birendra Kumar Dixit (maternal uncle) and Sudhir Kumar Tripathi (paternal uncle) and, therefore, she be given police protection from respondents No.4 to 7 and be kept in a safe house. It appears that family of the deceased wife consented to the marriage and the said protection petition was withdrawn by the petitioner and deceased wife on 17.09.2024. Thereafter on 09.10.2024 a panchayati divorce was also written on the pressure of the family of the deceased wife, however, the same was never acted upon and both continued to live together and the wife of the petitioner was forcibly taken by the family on 28.10.2024 and thereafter she alleged to have committed suicide on 25.12.2024. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as a matter of fact, it is a case of honour killing and the petitioner has been made a scapegoat and representation dated 20.03.2025 (Annexure P-11) has been submitted by the mother of the petitioner to the Commissioner of Police, Faridkot. He further submits that there is no instigation or provocation on the part of the petitioner and no offence under Sections 108 and 3(5) of the BNS is made out. He further submits that the petitioner is not involved in any other case and is ready and willing to join the investigation.

4. Having considered the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the petition is allowed. Order dated 02.4.2025 passed by this Court, is hereby made absolute, subject to the condition enumerated under Section 482(2) BNSS.
