Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia submits that the petitioner, a pastor by profession, has been falsely implicated in the present case on the statement of the prosecutrix. It is submitted that, as per the allegations leveled in the FIR, the prosecutrix was allegedly abducted from her workplace by co-accused Sawar Masih along with other co-accused and was forcibly taken to an undisclosed location. The only role attributed to the petitioner is that he offered prayers and administered holy water to the prosecutrix, on the asking of the mother of the main accused. Learned counsel submits that the petitioner had bonafide intentions throughout, and had no knowledge regarding the commission of the alleged offences. Moreover, no overt act with respect to the alleged offences of kidnapping, wrongful confinement, sexual assault, or criminal conspiracy has been attributed to the petitioner. It is further submitted that, the similarly placed co-accused namely Rimmy Masih and Rajinder Masih have already been granted the interim protection by this Court in the anticipatory bail petitions filed by them. Learned counsel further submits that there is no material on record that points towards the complicity of the petitioner, who is ready and willing to join investigation and cooperate.
