The present application has been filed for placing on affidavits, evidencing settlement between the parties, as Annexures P-14 to P-16.

Notice of the application.

Learned counsel for the respondents No.1(i) and 1(ii) accepts notice and does not oppose the prayer made in the application.

In view of the averments made in the application and the fact that the documents sought to be placed on record are material for proper adjudication of the present case, the application is allowed, subject to all just exceptions. The Compromise/Panchayati decision along with affidavits are taken on record as Annexures P-14 to P-16.

Civil Revision No.3023 of 2024 (O & M)

The present revision petition has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India for setting aside the impugned order dated 05.01.2024 (Annexure P-8) passed by the learned Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Sri Anandpur Sahib, whereby the application filed by the petitioner under Order XXI Rule 32 CPC seeking enforcement of judgment and decree dated 25.05.2010 (Annexure P-2), including a prayer for civil imprisonment of the respondents for alleged disobedience, has been dismissed.

At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during the pendency of the present revision petition, the parties have amicably resolved their dispute by way of a compromise/panchayati decision, which has been placed on record today as Annexures P-14 to P-16 vide order passed in CM-25894-CII-2025. On the basis of the said settlement, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present revision petition.

Learned Senior Counsel for the respondents No.1(i) and 1(ii) affirms the factum of compromise and raises no objection to the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner.

It is confirmed by learned counsel for the parties that all the parties to the petition are part of the said Compromise.

In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the parties and the compromise arrived at between them, which has been duly taken on record, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the present revision petition pending.

Accordingly, the present civil revision petition is dismissed as withdrawn in view of the compromise effected between the parties. However, it is clarified that the parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of the compromise (Annexures P-14 to P-16), and shall strictly adhere to the same.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
