along a report of the Structural Engineer, Annexure P21, but the same has not been considered and Chandigarh Housing Board (CHB) is in process of granting permission to install lifts.

3. Be that as it may, since a similar issue is already pending for consideration before the authorities as has been noticed in the previous order, petitioners shall appear before respondents No.2 and 4 and present their case. It is expected that respondents No.2 and 4 shall afford hearing to petitioners, consider the report being relied upon by them and pass appropriate orders as expeditiously as possible within a period of one month from today. Till the time such an order is passed, installation of lifts in the HIG, Upper Sector 38 West Chandigarh, shall remain stayed and parties shall maintain status quo.

4. Writ petition is disposed of.
