In the impugned order passed by the learned JMIC, Dassua (i.e. the court where the first complaint was filed as contended by the petitioner), the only reason given for dismissing the application filed before that court is that though cheques were presented and dishonoured on the same date, legal notices were issued on different dates qua each cheque stated to have been issued by the petitioner, and notice of acquisition was also served separately in all the complaints, and before the notice of acquisition, no application was made by the accused.

Learned counsel for the petitioner on the other hand relies upon a judgment of a co-ordinate bench of this court in Ashutosh Humnabadkar, Director, M/s Digihome Solution (P) Ltd. and another vs. Continental Device India Ltd and another, (CRM-M-1184-2014, decided on 28.01.2015), where a similar petition had been allowed, with 12 complaints having been ordered to be heard by way of a single trial, by this court.

Upon specific query to learned counsel he submits that the said judgment has not been reversed by the Supreme Court.

Notice of motion be issued to the respondents, returnable on 07.10.2021.

Dasti only, with liberty to serve the respondent through the counsel representing it before the trial court in each complaint, with learned counsel specifically submitting that the same counsel is representing the respondent in all cases.

It is made clear that if the respondent is not shown to be served on the next date of hearing, there will be no interim order passed in favour of the petitioner, the order as has been impugned in the present petition being 1 year and 8 months old.”
