For Respondent(s) : Mr. Urja Ram Kalbi, PP

Order

26/02/2026

1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.163/2025 registered at Police Station Mangarop, District Bhilwara for offence under Sections 8/29 of NDPS Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submitted that the only allegation against the present petitioner is that of supplying the recovered contraband weighing 446.950 kilograms of Poppy Husk, which is above the commercial quantity, however, nothing has been recovered from his conscious possession. He has been implicated and arrested solely on the basis of the disclosure statement of the co-accused, Kishan, who has already been granted the benefit of bail vide order dated 18.12.2025. It is, therefore, contended that on the ground of parity, the present petitioner is also entitled to be enlarged on bail. Since no contraband has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner and the allegation against him is limited to the extent of supplying the recovered contraband only. Thus, the twin conditions as envisaged under Section 37 of the NDPS Act stands satisfied. The petitioner is behind the bars since 12.01.2025 without any criminal past and charge-sheet has been filed. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required. Hence, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Madan Lal S/o Yashraj @ Jasraj, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
