Order

23/02/2026

1. The petitioners have filed these bail applications under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.175/2024 registered at Police Station RIICO Area Barmer District Barmer for offence under Sections 8/15, 17, 25 & 29 of NDPS Act.
2. Since both these bail applications arise out of common FIR, hence, they are being decided by this common order.

3. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that no contraband has been recovered from the conscious possession of the present petitioners. He again submits that the allegation against the petitioner No.1 Chandan Singh is that he is the owner of the premises and given the premises on rent to the main accused Damaram, in which, contraband 82.710 Kgs. Poppy Straw and 1.450 Kgs Opium were recovered, and allegation against the petitioner No.2 Shankar Vishnoi Alias Shankara Ram is that he is the supplier of the 82.710 Kgs. Poppy Straw, which is above the commercial quantity, to the prime accused Damaram and except that there is no material available on record which establishes any link or their involvement with the alleged offence. He further contended that no call detail records or any other documentary evidence are available on record to prima facie establish any connection of the present petitioners with the contraband or with the principal accused, Damaram. Petitioner No.2 Shankar Singh is in custody since 30.09.2025 with four criminal antecedents of different nature, in which, he is already on bail and petitioner No.1 Chandan Singh since 04.06.2025 without any criminal past. Hence, twin test of Section 37 of NDPS Act is satisfied. The trial of the case will take considerable time, therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioners in further custody and the bail application of the petitioners may be allowed.

5. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

6. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioners but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioners.

7. Consequently, the bail applications under Section 483 B.N.S.S. are allowed and it is directed that the petitioners Chandan Singh S/o Bhanwar Singh and Shankar Vishnoi Alias Shankara Ram, be released on bail provided each of them furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that each of them shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
