Order

08/01/2021

Pursuant to the order dated 04.12.2020, the bailable warrants have been received served. Both the respondents Krishna Kumar Goyal and Vishnu Kumar are present in person before the Court.

Learned counsel Mr. Trilok Joshi appearing for both the respondents by video conferencing, made submissions that the respondents are prepared to handover the possession of the suit property to the petitioner before the next date. However, a submission has been made that the petitioner is reluctant to receive the possession without payment of mesne profit.

List the petition on 11.01.2021. Before that date, the possession of the suit property shall be handed-over by the respondents Krishna Kumar Goyal and Vishnu Kumar to the petitioner and it is expected from the petitioner not to show any reluctance in receiving the possession of the property without payment of mesne profit. The issue, if any, would be taken care of subsequently.

List the petition on 11.01.2021.

As respondents are now represented by Mr. Trilok Joshi, who is present through video conferencing and a submission on their behalf has been made, their personal presence is dispensed with for the next date.
