Order

23/02/2026

1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.101/2024 registered at Police Station Sadar Chittorgarh, District Chittorgarh for offence under Sections 8/29 of NDPS Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He again submits that the allegation against the present petitioner is that he hatched a conspiracy by escorting the vehicle from which contraband weighing 258 kilograms Opium Poppy Straw, which is above the commercial quantity, was recovered. It is further submitted that, apart from the aforesaid allegation, no contraband has been recovered from the conscious or exclusive possession of the present petitioner. It is further contended that there is no cogent or connecting evidence on record to establish any nexus among the recovered contraband, the co-accused, and the present petitioner. He further submitted that the statement of the Investigating Officer (PW-2) has already been recorded, and in his cross-examination, the Investigating Officer specifically stated that there is no direct or indirect evidence linking the involved vehicle with the present petitioner. He again submitted that the petitioner has been implicated only on the basis of the disclosure statement of the co-accused, therefore, due to lack of the cogent material, it would not be appropriate to keep the present petitioner behind the bars. He again submits that the petitioner is behind the bars since 28.06.2024. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required. Hence, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Dinesh S/o Deepchand Alias Deepa Dangi, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
