Order

23/03/2026

1. The instant bail application has been filed under Section 483 BNSS on behalf of accused-petitioner. The petitioner has been arrested in connection with FIR No.417/2023 registered at Police Station Kotwali- Ganganagar, District Ganganagar for the offence(s) under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B of IPC.

2. Learned counsel for the accused-petitioner submits that the accused-petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case for the offence punishable under Sections 420, 467, 468 and 471 of IPC. It is argued that petitioner has not forged any documents, the petitioner is a bonafide purchaser and he has purchased the said property from one Abhay Singh and Abhay Singh has provided him the entire chain of documents confirming the title of the disputed property. It is also contended that the petitioner has filed a civil suit against the complainant-party and the said civil suit is still pending adjudication. The petitioner is a bonafide purchaser and not forged any documents. The petitioner is behind the bars since long and the matter is exclusively triable by Magistrate and further trial may take considerable time, therefore, the bail application of the petitioner may kindly be allowed.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application and contended that the petitioner is not the owner of the said property and after investigation it was found that the patta of the said property was issued jointly in the name of Smt. Rashi Biyani and Vikas Jhanwar. It is also argued that no such patta was ever issued by the petitioner, therefore, considering the above facts, the bail application of the petitioner deserves dismissal.

4. Heard and perused the material available on record.

5. Considering the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioner and looking to the fact that the matter is exclusively triable by Magistrate, therefore, without commenting further on the merits of the case, I deem it just and proper to enlarge the accused-petitioner on bail.

6. Accordingly, the bail application under Section 483 BNSS is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-petitioner Amritpal Singh @ Rinku S/o Shri Modan Singh, in connection with FIR No.417/2023 registered at Police Station Kotwali- Ganganagar, District Ganganagar shall be enlarged on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial

Judge for his appearance before the court concerned on all the dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.
