Order

11/02/2021

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that vehicle of the petitioner was stopped and a challan was prepared on 23.02.2015 due to overloading. Later on, a notification was issued on 08.07.2020 whereby State Government increased the compoundable amount for various offences as mentioned in the schedule in pursuance to the said notification. Now in pursuance of said notification, the Authority concerned is refusing to compound the offence.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the present matter is relating to much prior to issuing of the notification dated 08.07.2020 and therefore any condition of said notification is not applicable in the present case and, therefore, the petitioner is not bound to compound the offences according to the said notification.

Issue notice to the respondents.

Rule is made returnable within four weeks.

In the meanwhile the case of the petitioner may be considered for compounding and unblocking the registration certificate as per the provisions which were existing prior to the issuance of notification dated 08.07.2020.
