The defect of correction of entry is permitted to be corrected during the course of hearing. Shri Surendra Bishnoi, learned counsel for the State, has made the corrections in the memo of appeal.
2.

Matter comes upon an application under Section 5 of the Limitation Act seeking condonation of delay caused in filing the instant leave to appeal.
3.

Looking to the sufficient nature, in which, the appellant has prevented from filing the appeal within the prescribed period, thus, the application under Section 5 of the Limitation Act is allowed.

4. After a full fledged trial, the accused respondents have been acquitted from the charges, there appears reasonable ground to allow the State to prefer an appeal.

5. Accordingly, the instant leave to appeal application is allowed. The memo of leave to appeal application shall be treated and registered as an appeal.
