Order

10/02/2026

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that while challenging order dated 29.07.2025 (Annexure-8) passed by the Court of Additional Collector cum Sub Divisional Officer, Hanumangarh, whereby an application of private respondents under Section 251-A of the Rajasthan Tenancy Act has been allowed, so also the order dated 24.11.2025 passed by Revenue Appellate Authority (dismissing the appeal preferred by petitioner), revision petition No. 11646/2025 has been filed before Board of Revenue, Ajmer.

2. While drawing attention of this Court to the order dated 15.12.2025, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that although arguments for admission as well as stay application were heard on the said date, yet learned Board of Revenue has not passed any orders, as the record was awaited.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that if stay petition preferred by petitioner is not decided expeditiously and orders impugned are permitted to be implemented, the very purpose of filing the revision petition so also the stay application would get frustrated.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner makes limited submissions for issuing appropriate directions to learned Board of Revenue to decide the pending stay application expeditiously.

5. In view of the submissions made, this Court deems it appropriate to dispose of present writ petition while directing learned Board of Revenue to decide the stay application filed alongwith revision petition no. 11646/2025 as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of copy of this order.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the next date fixed by Learned Board of Revenue is 24.03.2026, therefore, this Court directs that petitioner will be at liberty to move appropriate application for preponement of date and learned Board of Revenue is directed to consider the same for the purpose of implementing directions given in the orders.

7. Stay application and all other pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
